Directions

Stamford Bridge is located on the Fulham Road in south-west London. With no available parking on site on a matchday and local areas reserved for residents, we recommend the use of public transport. Fulham Broadway underground station (District Line) is just a few minutes' walk away and buses 14, 211 and 414 pass close by. Both Earls Court (District Line) and West Brompton (Mainline and District Line) stations are also a short walk away.
